

March 31, 2026

Dear Limited Partner,

We are pleased to provide your Q4 2025 Quarterly Report, the audited annual financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2025, and your capital account statement as of December 31, 2025.

Fund Performance

Centana Growth Partners, L.P. ("Fund I")

The portfolio's value declined by 6.9% during the quarter. Fund I has generated an approximate gross MOIC and IRR of 3.9x and 28.3% and a net MOIC and IRR of 2.8x and 20.5%, respectively, as of December 31, 2025. The decline was driven primarily by weakening market multiples in Jumio's public comps, which were particularly pronounced across publicly-traded information services companies, as well as a fair value adjustment reflecting a combination of Jumio's operational underperformance relative to plan, feedback from a strategic review process conducted in the second half of 2025, and market dynamics in their sector.

Centana Growth Partners II, L.P. ("Fund II")

The portfolio's value increased by 7.8% during the quarter. Fund II has generated an approximate gross MOIC and IRR of 1.5x and 14.6% and a net MOIC and IRR of 1.2x and 8.0%, respectively, as of December 31, 2025. This increase is primarily due to strong operating performance from Cayosoft, Inc. and Zesty.ai, Inc.

Centana Growth Partners III, L.P. ("Fund III")

The portfolio's value increased by 1.2% during the quarter. Fund III has generated an approximate gross MOIC and IRR of 1.0x and 6.0% and a net MOIC and IRR of 0.9x and (15.9)%, respectively, as of December 31, 2025. This increase is primarily due to strong operating performance from WarrCloud, Inc.

Fund III Portfolio

The Helper Bees, Inc. – On January 13, 2025, Fund III completed a $25.0 million investment in The Helper Bees, Inc., as the lead investor in their Series C round. Headquartered in Austin, TX, The Helper Bees facilitates delivery of covered, non-medical products and services to Medicare Advantage and Medicaid enrollees and Long-Term Care Insurance policyholders. The Company's aging-in-place platform provides an end-to-end solution for the distribution of supplemental benefits and reduces the risks associated with seniors living at home, leading to cost savings for payers and a better quality of life for members. Centana was attracted to the Helper Bees' comprehensive solution suite, strong customer relationships, highly satisfied member population, and opportunity to drive efficiency and deliver value across a fragmented market landscape.

On May 7, 2025, Fund III purchased an additional $2.0 million of Series C shares at the same price and terms as the original investment. This brought the cost basis of Fund III's total investment in The Helper Bees to $27.0 million.

CertifID, Inc. – On June 30, 2025, Fund III completed a $30.0 million investment in CertifID, Inc., as the lead investor in their Series C round. Headquartered in Austin, TX, CertifID provides a wire fraud prevention product primarily focused on securing residential real estate transactions. CertifID helps prevent wire fraud by enabling users to securely initiate, track, and verify wire transactions. Centana is excited by CertifID's comprehensive approach to safeguard businesses through a sophisticated fraud prevention platform, workflow automation, and embedded payment and insurance offerings.

Reggora, Inc. – On August 14, 2025, Fund III completed an $18.0 million investment in Reggora, Inc. as the lead investor in their Series D round. Headquartered in Boston, MA, Reggora is a cloud-based appraisal management platform that enables residential mortgage lenders to manage the full property valuation lifecycle. Reggora helps streamline appraisal workflows by integrating directly with loan origination systems and automating ordering, routing, review, and payments. Centana views Reggora's extensive product capabilities and its opportunity to capture value in a fragmented market with a roadmap built to address future regulatory changes as key factors supporting the investment.

RunBuggy OMI, Inc. – On September 18, 2025, Fund III completed a $30.0 million investment in RunBuggy OMI, Inc. as the lead investor in their Series B round. Headquartered in Phoenix, AZ, RunBuggy is a B2B logistics marketplace for the automotive industry. The platform connects shippers (such as banks, dealerships, OEMs, rental car companies, and individuals) with a network of transporters (drivers) to move vehicles for a variety of use cases. Speed and transparency (of vehicle location and pricing) are important factors when choosing which transportation provider to work with. Centana considers RunBuggy's tech-forward platform that easily matches shippers to drivers across the US well positioned to support growth in vehicle logistics.

RetireGo, Inc. – On November 12, 2025, Fund III completed a $21.2 million investment in RetireGo, Inc. (dba 401Go) as the lead investor in their Series B round. Headquartered in Sandy, Utah, 401Go provides retirement plan solutions designed for small and medium-sized businesses (SMBs) through its technology and full suite of services. The platform integrates with HR systems to automate workflows and create an expedited experience for employers, employees, and financial advisors. The Company has built its own technology stack, which Centana believes enables more automation, better customer experiences and the ability to service smaller customers.

BenePass, Inc. – On November 21, 2025, Fund III completed a $28.5 million investment in BenePass, Inc. as the lead investor in their Series B round. Headquartered in New York, New York, BenePass provides a unified benefits platform for employers to fund and manage benefits for pre-tax spending accounts (e.g. FSA, HSA, Commuter, HRA) and lifestyle spending accounts (“LSAs”) for employer-funded post-tax benefits (e.g. wellness, food, family and childcare, professional development, etc.). Centana views BenePass’s proprietary fintech and data infrastructure, including its unified ledger and real-time decisioning engine, as core product capabilities that position the company to streamline benefits administration and capture share from legacy providers.

Tava Health, Inc. – On December 4, 2025, Fund III completed a $30.0 million investment in Tava Health, Inc. as the lead investor in their Series C round. Headquartered in Salt Lake City, Utah, Tava’s platform provides an end-to-end solution for licensed therapists to work more independently without setting up the back office and insurance network needed for an independent practice. The platform connects suitable therapists to patients (employees of mid-market employers) and/or enables therapists to bring their own patients to the platform bundling EMR, scheduling, telehealth video, and billing/claims into one system. The Company has a strong insurance network spanning 90%+ of the commercially insured population across every state and provides a differentiated utilization-based pricing model.

Subsequent Events

Portfolio Activity

WarrCloud, Inc. – On January 28, 2026, Fund III completed a $4.0 million follow-on investment in WarrCloud, Inc., at a slight premium to the Series B round led by Centana in Q4 2024. The company has performed well since our initial investment, ending the year at approximately $38 million in ARR, representing over 50% growth year-over-year. This investment brought the cost basis of Fund III’s total investment in WarrCloud to $22.2 million.

AlphaSense, LLC – On February 4, 2026, Fund I portfolio company, AlphaSense, raised a $150 million Series F round, led by Vitruvian Partners. We are pleased with the continued strong interest in the company, driven by the excitement around AI. This recent round was done at approximately a $7.25 billion pre-money equity value, which reflects a 3.8x gross MOIC on Fund I’s remaining position, and brings Fund I’s total investment to a 3.0x gross MOIC as of December 31, 2025.

Eventus Systems, Inc. – On February 20, 2026, Eventus was acquired by Terminus Capital Partners for $100.0 million of cash consideration and 40,000,000 shares of common stock in the acquiring company. Centana received $22.0 million in cash and 1,172,789 shares which is valued at $0.6 million as of December 31, 2025. Since Centana’s investment, the Company has organically expanded ARR from $8 million to over $30 million, but has also incurred higher-than-expected expenses. Centana played a key role in supporting the company through expense and debt restructuring, and helping to catalyze and support the complex sale process. Excluding the residual position, the transaction represents a gross MOIC and IRR of 1.2x and 4.9%.

Striveworks, Inc. – On March 9, 2026, Striveworks completed an $18.0 million Series B investment led by Washington Harbour Partners. The Series B was completed at a $400 million pre-money nominal valuation in a participating security, approximately a 1.8x step-up in value from the 2023 Series A led by Centana. Headquartered in Austin, TX, Striveworks helps enterprises streamline the process of taking machine learning models into production and, subsequently, maintaining, monitoring, and improving those models. Striveworks’ product is flexible across both on-prem and cloud-based environments, which Centana believes represents a significant opportunity to capture market share in relatively more data-sensitive industry verticals. The Company has helped deliver mission-critical intelligence to the United States federal government and military.
